Dear Mr. Horne:

As I mentioned to you over the phone, our office does thousands of proclamations, and works very hard to gather accurate and thorough information from whatever sources it can on a very short timeframe. Since the material for the Glorioso Brothers proclamation came from your posting, I wanted to send you this letter giving you credit. Feel free to post this letter on your site.

Glorioso Brothers is a great Milwaukee small business, with a rich history and a bright future in the city. Your article was a fitting tribute to the company and the hardworking people who have made it a success.

Sincerely,

Dan Leistikow
Communications Director
